

Winter 2007 in Australia Supplemental Code of Conduct

I agree to the following general rules for conduct while on the study abroad trip to Australia:

1. Whenever I leave the campus (or the hotel when not staying on a campus), I will sign out and be honest about where I am going and when I will return.
2. When going on an independent weekend excursion, I will leave the faculty directors a copy of my itinerary and phone numbers for each night.
3. I will attend all classes, meetings, and organized trips.
4. I will be on time for the bus for all organized trips.
5. I will keep my cell phone on when I am away from campus so the faculty director can contact me, if necessary.
6. I will not consume more than 2 alcoholic drinks on any official occasion or event associated with this winter session program, including on flights and at official meals.
7. If I consume alcohol during my free time, it will always be in moderation.
8. I will not use any illegal drugs.
9. I will be tolerant of the other students and respect their opinions and natures.
10. I will treat the University of Melbourne faculty and tutors with the same respect that should be afforded any instructor or professor.
11. I will be tolerant, polite, and friendly to ALL people I encounter.
12. If I am having a problem of any sort, I will talk to one of the faculty directors as soon as possible so that the problem can be resolved.
13. I will look after my buddy, especially when off campus.

My buddy or buddies (no more than 2) will be_____.
